PRESENTED BY ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF
AUBURN ACADEMY
AUBURN, WASHINGTON
EDITOR: FLORENCE TEO
BUSINESS MANAGER: JANNICE
RASMUSSEN

Filled almost beyond capacity, South Hall echoes to happy laughter and suppressed giggles as a home for all the girls.

In these rooms the upper classmen make their home a delightful place to study and rest.

Lower classmen have enjoyed Manous as a school home but it will give way to the modern buildings now under construction.

Many hours of recreation and entertainment will be only happy memories as the gym also gives way to the modernization of our campus.

STEPPINGSTONES

Science, the Arts and History,
Bookkeeping, Language, Chemistry,
Home Ec, and Math, and Biology —
There they all are for you and me.

On the rugged Path of Learning,
— Steppingstones!

Classes and clubs, games old and new,
Banquets and concerts, friendships, too,
Working and playing the whole year through —
All these can make us strong and true.

On the way to Abundant Living,
— Steppingstones!

Study of Truth like an opening flower,
Faith that becomes a mighty tower,
Prayer and praise, the Vesper Hour —
These form a life of Hope and Power.

On the road to God's Tomorrow,
— Steppingstones!

The ancient knight was known for his valor, fidelity, strength, and loyalty. Our modern Crusader has shown that he possesses these same qualities. In his classes of science and mathematics, in various organizations, and in other fields he has shown these qualities. His energy, purpose, and enthusiasm have contributed much to the success of our school.

To you, Mr. Reed, our modern Crusader, symbolizing the best to be found in educational leadership, we dedicate this 1962 Rainier Vista.

P R I N C I P A L , S

M E S S A G E

"The Greatest want of the world is the want of men — men who will not be bought or sold, men who in their inmost souls are true and honest, men who do fear to call sin by its right name, men whose conscience is as true to duty as the needle to the pole, men who will stand for the right though the heavens fall." Ed. p. 57.

How great this need is today! How the world needs honest and true men who will stand for the right "come what may"!

Students, God needs such men and women. He is looking for young people who will faithfully serve

Him in the finishing of His work on earth. The task is one that requires inner fortitude and the ability to stand for principle regardless of what the rest of the world may think or do.

As you leave Auburn Academy, you will be looked upon as representatives of this school and your God.

It is my hope that each one of you will accept the task that God gives you, and that you will be true and faithful to the Christian principles that you have learned here at Auburn Academy.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

BACK ROW: H. F. Hannah, Earl K. Mooers, Herbert Hill, L. E. McClain, Joe Day. Not pictured: J. T. Porter, J. C. C. R. Aimes, Kenneth Sturdevant, M. D., Harvey Neil. Kozel, C. A. Scriven, Ed H. Webb.
FRONT ROW: M. J. Perry, E. C. Christie, N. R. Dower,

Groundbreaking ceremony for new boys' dormitory.

MR. ELMER LAMPSON, Accountant
MR. EDGAR ORTNER, Treasurer
MR. DONALD CANTRELL, Registrar

Whether it is finances or transcripts the supervision by these competent instructors is necessary to keep our school running smoothly.

MRS. HELEN SIMMONS, Assistant Dean of Girls
MRS. LOIS BERRY, School Nurse
MRS. NELLIE DAVIS, Dean of Girls

Girls in South Hall may be home-sick, heart-sick, or just playing sick; but sad, gay or mischievous, sympathetic hands and understanding hearts make it home away from home.

MR. BILL SIMMONS, Director of Guidance
MR. RON BARROW, Dean of Gibson
MR. RON MILLER, Dean of Manous

Guidance in dorm life as well as in character building and the choice of a vocation by dedicated men helps prepare the student for their places in society.

MR. RONALD REED, Math
MR. WILLIAM COLEMAN, Science

Algebraic, geometric, chemical or physical — problems are nothing to two good scientific minds. But even the experts have questions. "Why all the gadgets and contraptions in your trunk, Mr. Coleman?"

MRS. BESSIE SOULE, Home Economics
MRS. LEONA ALTMILLER, Secretarial
Science
MR. EDWARD SPADY, Manual Arts

Whether it be girls learning the art of cooking, boys learning to work with wood or metal, or both learning to type, they are acquiring skills which have practical application towards their future life.

MR. RAY LEADBETTER, English
MR. CLEO LILE, English
MR. VERNON BERRY, Language

The language instructors prove that the ability to dissect does not belong to the biology department alone. They teach the rudiments of our mother tongue, the classics of the ages, and the romance languages of Spanish and French.

ELDER C. L. WITZEL, Church Pastor
ELDER EDWIN READING, Bible Instructor

Religion dull and uninteresting? Not when the scenes of the Bible are brought to life by men who have been there and can describe firsthand the background and setting for the many stories and parables.

MR. LeROY WEBER, Music Director
MRS. AUSIL WITZEL, Piano Instructor
MRS. DOROTHY WEBER, Choral Director

Patience, kindness and the inspiration of personal achievement keep the students striving to attain to the goal set for them by our accomplished music staff.

MR. JAMES HANSON, Music Director

Shortly after school had started Mr. Hanson received an invitation from Uncle Sam to change uniforms. We are looking forward to his return when he once again will be in charge of the choir and band.

MRS. ELMYRA BANEK, Laundry Superintendent
 MRS. FLORENCE AIME, Director of Food Service
 MRS. WINNIE CARTER, Assistant

Pie and ice cream or soup and toast — on a freshly laundered tablecloth with candlelight and soft music, it's a banquet, when planned and prepared by the efficient hands of experienced supervisors.

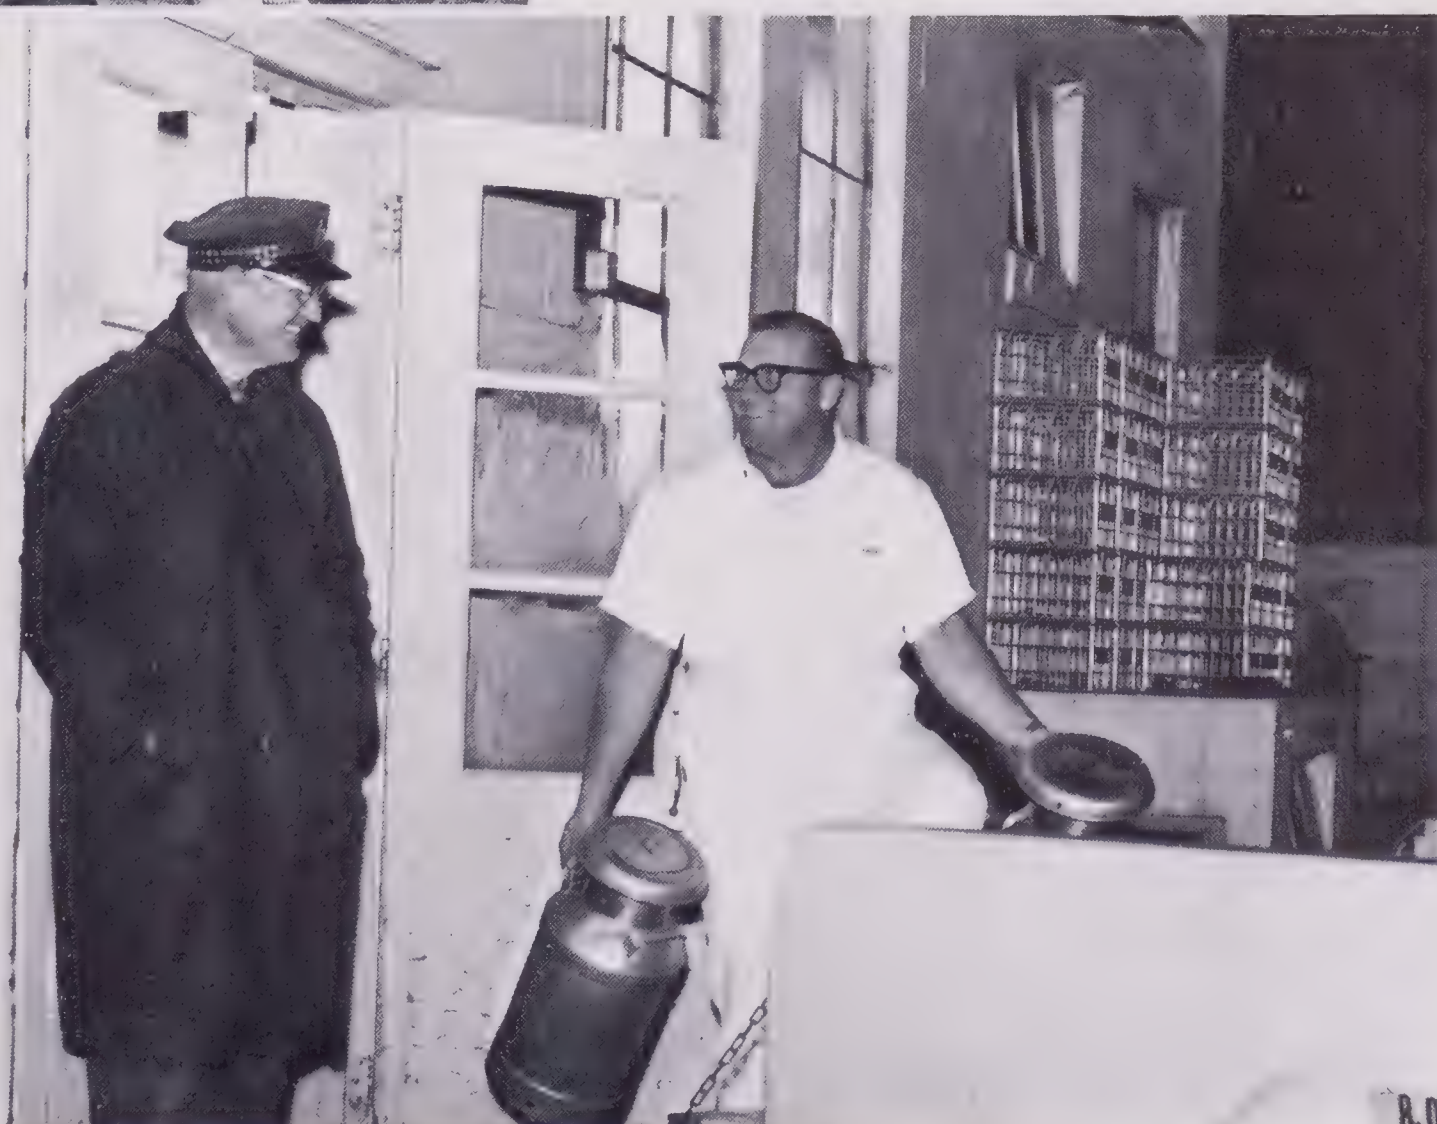

MR. EUGENE WESSLEN, Maintenance
 MR. DONALD WERTZ, Boiler Room Superintendent

Pictured here are men who keep our campus in tiptop shape. Mr. Wertz undoubtedly has charge of the hottest spot on the campus as he supervises boys in the boiler room while some of the students who work for Mr. Wesslen think he runs the wettest as they lay a new water line on a rainy afternoon.

MR. L. H. AUFDERHAR, Nightwatchman
 MR. ROBERT FARVER, Farm Manager

After daylight comes "Aufty" searching the shadows for straying feet and watching . . . watching through the night for anything amiss on our campus. Occasionally, the noise he hears is the rattle of milk cans as the farm manager delivers milk to the dairy which is a favorite spot on the campus after mealtimes.

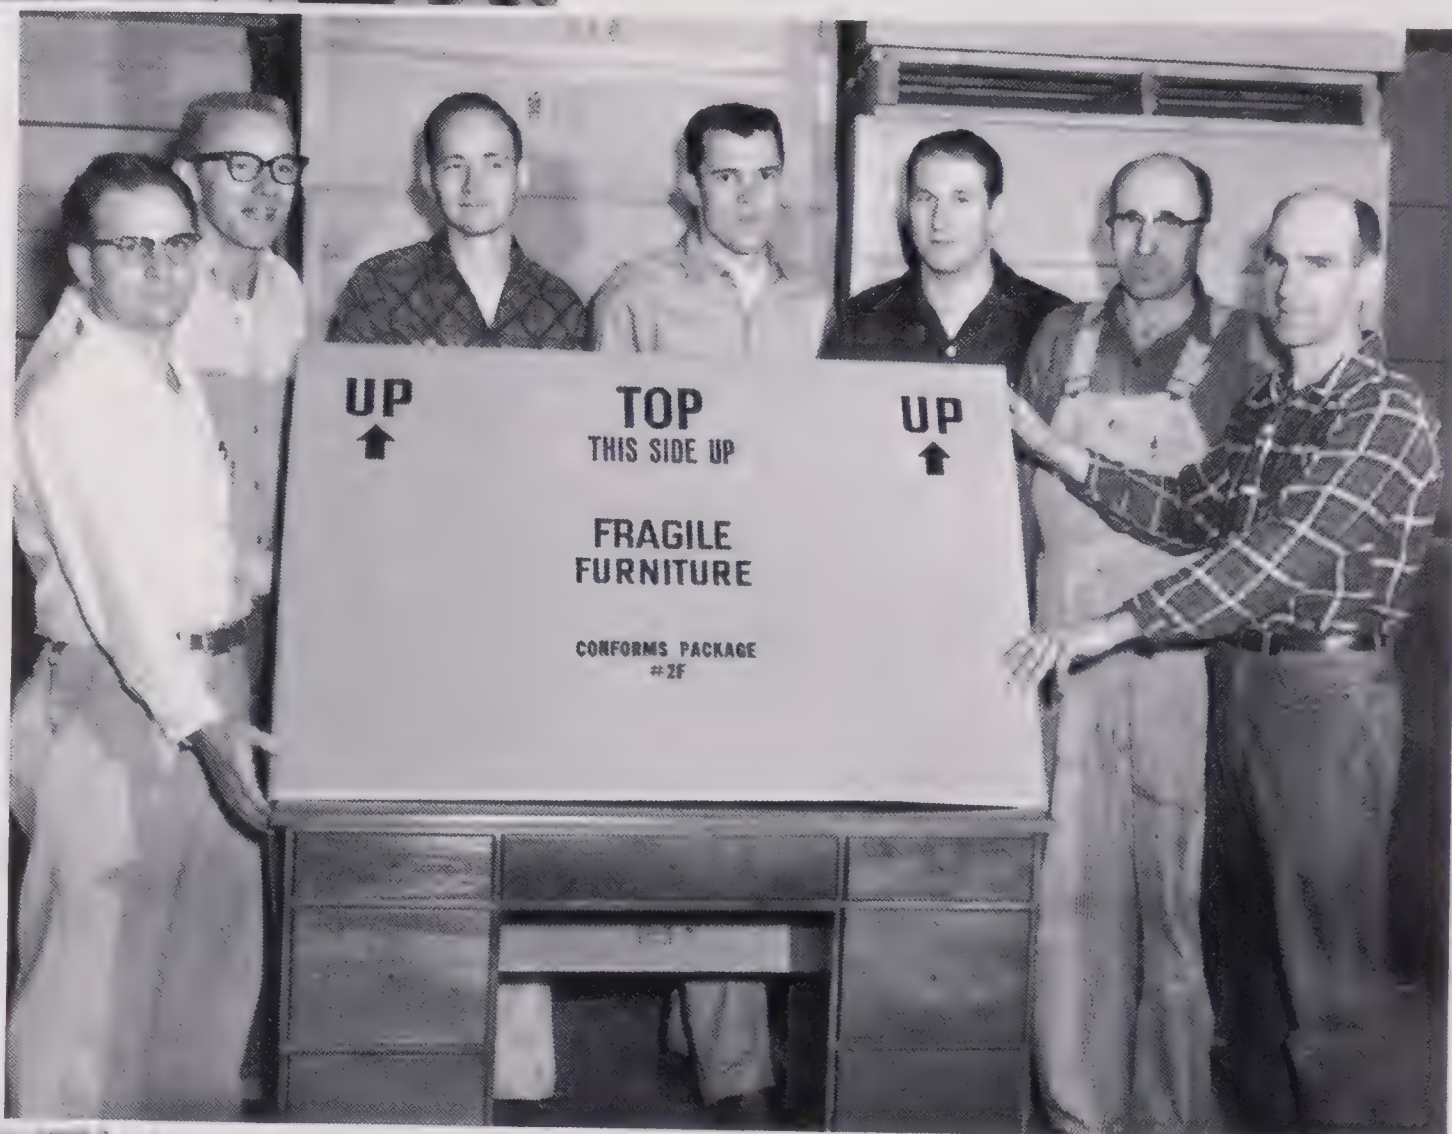

MR. RICHARD ROBERTS, Accountant
MR. JOE DAY, Superintendent
MR. BERRY DeVICE, Salesman

Mr. DeVice keeps a continuous flow of orders coming across the desk of Mr. Day, which eventually are recorded in terms of dollars and cents on the books of Mr. Roberts.

MR. RUSSELL SLABACH, Mill Room
MR. ROBERT SCHNEIDER, Yard
MR. RAY HUBER, Assembly Room
MR. BILL DAY, Finishing Room
MR. DUANE BULLOCK, Shipping Room
MR. SIG HELAND, Assistant Mill Room
MR. RICHARD WARMAN, Saw Mill

Students help to defray the cost of their education by working with their hands under the Christian guidance of dedicated shop foremen.

MR. L. E. SOULE, Van Driver
MR. WILLIAM BANEK, Assistant Superintendent
MR. CHARLES GEDDES, Mechanic
MR. DAN GRAHAM, Van Driver

Long hours of driving constitute the work of Mr. Soule and Mr. Graham as they deliver the products of the factory made under the direction of Mr. Banek. The trucks are kept in good repair by Mr. Geddes.

Spiritual

Ingathering is not a burden but a great privilege when it provides opportunity for personal contact with our neighbors both in singing carols and gathering articles of food and clothing which are auctioned off for cash to help swell the funds for those less fortunate than we.

"IN THINE HAND . . . TO MAKE GREAT."

One of the great thrills of this school year was the time we spent attending the North Pacific Union Youth Congress in the Memorial Coliseum in Portland where 12,000 Missionary Volunteers and friends from all over the Northwest assembled for a four-day meeting, April 18 to 21.

A great spiritual revival was experienced by all under the Spirit-filled, youth messages by Elder E. L. Minchin, our associate world youth leader from Washington, D.C., and the dynamic preaching by Elders D. A. Delafield, H. A. S. Richards, Harold Richards, Jr., and others.

Other features of the congress which we especially enjoyed were the seven youth discussion groups meeting twice daily, the "Spotlight on Truth" Bible teams and the temperance orations on Thursday night by the three academy finalists. It was also a thrill to hear Rafer Johnson, the world's greatest living athlete, and to meet Anna Stahl, our pioneer missionary to the Amazon.

Our choir joined with nine other choirs from the academies and College in some of the most beautiful singing we have ever heard.

For all of us, the youth congress brought a new sense of direction and a firmer commitment to our privilege of realizing personally the congress theme: "IN THINE HAND . . . TO MAKE GREAT."

It takes many people working hard to compose an annual. Without the aid of students, the sponsors, the businessmen and the photographers this 1962 RAINIER VISTA would not have been possible.

I want to thank each and every one of the annual staff members for all the late hours and hard work; the sponsors who have stood behind us in all our endeavors; you fellow students and faculty members who have been prompt and patient in getting your pictures taken; the club officers and their sponsors: these helped make this yearbook possible. But most of all, I wish to thank the businessmen who see that in advertising in an academy publication they are reaching their future customers.

Thank you — thank you everyone for your invaluable co-operation. May this be but the beginning steps in our "Steppingstones to Service."
